If you are suffering from Rheumatism or Neuralgia, do not postpone a trial of the great specific, ARTHROTON, till you see puffery of it in the newspapers. That you will never see. It is not a remedy which needs to be bolstered by talk. It makes itself known and felt just where you want relief, and that is by far the best praise. As Dr. S. Thompson, Milford, Del., says: "ARTHROTON is esteemed here because, as a medicine, it speaks for itself."

Poison.

Of the blood by reason of obstructive acid in the system is the recognized cause of rheumatic pain and inflammation. Resolve this acid and a cure is effected. ARTHROTON is the only known agent which speedily destroys the blood-poison and sends a healthy current into the diseased parts. Says J. C. Rinder, of Burlington, Wis.: "I regard ARTHROTON as the most wonderful medical discovery of the age. It cured me of Rheumatism and others to whom I recommended it. It is an invaluable specific."

Ice Mountains or Summer Lands. Those who wish a winter's sojourn under Florida Orange Groves, or at the wonderful World's Exposition at New Orleans, will find the Michigan Central offering the best rates, routes and accommodations. From Jan. 23d to 30th, the Michigan Central will sell round-trip tickets to Montreal, via Ottawa, good to return until Feb. 7th, at the low rate of $16.80 from Lawton.

Local Department.

Your roof leaked, didn't it? Everybody's did. You can bring that wood now as quick as you please.

Frank Sellick now has one of the neatest offices in town.

Geo. E. Brock has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, on a business trip.

Velvets are the special attraction at the "Double Store" this week.

We didn't have that "round square" that Lou Woodman sent the boy after.

Amie Palmer is in Detroit attending the annual session of the Masonic Grand Lodge.

The young people report a grand time at the masquerade, at the rink, last Friday evening.

Andy Johnson, of the Declarator Republican, was a welcome guest at the NORTHERNER office last Thursday afternoon.

Link Lucas says he is organizing a colored polo club to compete with the white trash of this county. Link is a rasher.

Jeff Chaffee has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. He was out last Saturday for the first time in several weeks.

C. E. Allen of Dickinson, Dak., is attending the exposition at New Orleans. He will visit his friends in Paw Paw on his return.

Harm Johnson was in town last week, calling on old friends. He says business is more brisk "up north" than it is in this part of the state.

We are in receipt of the Chicago Daily News Almanac and Political Record. It is filled with valuable political information. Price 10 cents.

Bert Greene of the Courier, is in Port Clinton, Ohio, called there to attend the funeral of his father whom he had not seen for nine years.

Mrs. J. J. Carroll, on Sunday last, lost her hat somewhere between this village and Ab. Willey's. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at Carroll's store.

A good many people were in town last Saturday, that being the first day for a week that they could venture out without danger of frosted noses, toes or ears.

Died, in this village, our open winter prophet; froze to death. He will be buried as soon as the weather moderates sufficiently to permit the digging of his grave.

Noyes don't make as much noise about business as he does about some other things. He is bound to keep his business before the people however. See his new "ad" in this paper.

One of the masked parties at the rink on Friday evening of last week, dropped something on her Heels, which he, she or it immediately picked up and pinned on again. What was it?

J. D. Allen—Del—of Mandan, Dak., has a fine collection of taxidermist goods at the New Orleans exposition. We know they are true for J. D. has no superior in that line, in the whole country.

Mrs. Ida H. Ocoock, wife of Eugene Ocoock, has filed a bill of complaint in the Circuit court for this county, in chancery, praying for a divorce from her husband on the ground of desertion.

Owing to the death of Dr. Ocoock, one of the oldest members of the church, the ladies of the First Baptist society have postponed their New England supper until Tuesday evening February 3d.

The following named gentlemen constitute the newly elected board of directors of the T. & S. H. R. Co. viz: F. B. Adams, Henry Ford, Edwin Martin, Geo. W. Lawton, John Hing, O. W. Rowland and L. C. Hurd.

The Gentlemen's Vocal Club under the management of Prof. C. E. Hutchins, will give a concert at the Christian church in this village, on Friday evening next. Admission 15 cents, children under 12 years of age, 10 cents.

The Chenango (N. Y.) American contains a very flattering notice of a musical convention, recently held at Greene, N. Y., by Prof. F. D. Jacobs, formerly of this village. Fred seems to be meeting with merited success in the convention business.

New baby at Geo. Dixon's.

Miss Dollie Dillie sports a handsome new gold watch.

Read Broughton's "Kard" and then go and see how nicely he is fixed.

The Odd Fellows had an elegant time at the Free Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Monthly union temperance meeting at the Free Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Mrs. Anna Barton will preach at the Free Baptist church next Sunday at the usual hours.

Our Gobleville correspondence reached us too late for use this week. Owing to the storm, probably.

Married, at Kendall's, on the 23d inst., Mr. Willard Tattershall of Milan, Kansas, to Miss Effie J. Phelps of Kendall's.

The Free Baptist society will hold a social at the residence of Mr. Douglas, on Tuesday afternoon of next week. Dinner will be served from two until four.

Long Charley or Slim Jim, the head center of the wood shed brigade at the Dyckman House, is the sole possessor of six bits which he earned doing the split-act at the rink the other evening, trying to do up the professional skater Arthur L. Hall.

Mrs. T. T. Butts, formerly of this village, died, of consumption, in Los Angeles, Cal., on the 12th inst. Mrs. Butts was an invalid when here and went to California with the hope of being benefited by a change of climate. She suffered very much and longed for death to bring her relief.

The board of county school examiners were in session at the Normal school office on Saturday last. They met to consider some difficulty concerning one of the Antwerp schools. The voluntary resignation of the teacher, which was accepted, relieved the board from the necessity of making any decision.

Paw Paw Odd Fellows have draped their hall in mourning, in memory of their deceased brother, the late Hon. Schuyler Colfax. Mr. Colfax was an active earnest Odd Fellow, and was highly respected by the order, to the advancement of which he had largely contributed. He was the author of the ritual of the Rebekah degree, and it may be truthfully said that it was by his efforts that the degree was created.

At the gift show, at the roller rink last week, Will Sellick Jr. had presented to him—unlooked for—a child (rag) which he would not father. Strange that a father does not know his own offspring. It is only fair to add that Will says it was Will Randall who drew the baby instead of himself, but Randall denies the paternity of the child. Well boys, some of these days you may both have children of whom you will not be ashamed.

C. W. Young of Paw Paw, is one of the committee on printing for the state fair of 1885, and is also one of the superintendents on farming implements. This county will be honored by his work, as he is one of the best men she has. With him there and with Isaac Monroe president of the Van Buren county agricultural society and C. J. Monroe president of the society in this western world, it seems as though there was going to be a shaking among the dry agricultural bones this year.—Sentinel.

Pitt Smith, an old and excellent musician living at Paw Paw, is devoting his talents to the manufacture of violins, and with good success. He uses the Steiner and Stradivarius models. Expert violinists pronounce his instruments to be wonderfully good as to power and sweetness of tone, and quite a number of his make cannot be re-purchased for $50. He also repairs violins, recently repairing one for Frank Buck, leader of the celebrated Buck & Geer's orchestra of this city, and Frank has added just $50 to the price of it since it came from his hands. His charges are very reasonable.—Dowagiac Times.

The series of dances given by the "Social Club" at the opera house, are the finest entertainments of the season. Buck and Geer's orchestra, by their good music and gentlemanly ways have won the good graces of all who attend. Last Thursday evening Mr. Frank Cormany favored the club with a fine cornet solo for which he received the thanks and applause of every person in the house. Mr. Cormany is a success as a cornetist and a whole orchestra in himself. Thursday evening, Feb. 5th, the next dance of the series, Mr. L. B. Roames gives a clarinet solo which will be appreciated by all who are present to hear him. Admission 10 cents.

Obituary.

Mrs. Mary Snay departed this life at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Jas. Phillips, on Friday, the 23d inst. Mrs. Snay was born in Montreal, in 1797, was married in 1817, was the mother of ten children, three boys and seven girls, five of whom are still living. She had nineteen grand children and six great grand children. The deceased was fairly entitled to rank as one of Michigan's pioneers, having settled at St. Joseph forty-eight years ago. She was a Catholic, a worker and a good mother. Her funeral services were conducted by Elder T. Brooks.

WILLIAM C. MACKELLAR.

William C. Mackellar who, for some time past has been an inmate of the Kalamazoo asylum, died at that institution, last Sunday morning. His death was not unexpected, as his physical strength had been gradually but constantly failing. The deceased had grown up in the midst of this community from childhood, and was much loved and respected by all who knew him. Genial, honorable and upright, he had no difficulty in winning friends and in retaining them. A short time before he passed away he became more rational, recognizing and bidding his friends good bye. Short services were held at his residence on Tuesday afternoon, and his remains temporarily deposited in the vault on Prospect Hill.

ABIGAIL BUTLER.

Mrs. Abigail Butler, wife of Wm. K. Butler of this township, passed to her long home on Monday morning Jan. 26th, 1885. Some two years ago she was stricken with paralysis, and her last illness had continued for some seven or eight weeks. She was about 70 years old. Herself and husband came to Michigan in 1836. One by one the old pioneers pass away and soon none will remain. They have fought the good fight, and are rapidly going to their reward. Peace to their ashes.

DR. PETER OCOOCK.

Died, at his residence in this village on Saturday last, of paralysis, Dr. Peter Ocoock, at the ripe old age of 79. He had been sick and confined to his home for the past seven years. He had been a resident here for 29 years, being one of a party of 18 persons who emigrated together to what was then considered to be the far west. He was a physician by profession, belonging to the botanical school, and before old age and ill health came upon him, he practiced his profession with marked success. He was a member of the First Baptist society in this village, and his funeral exercises were held at their church on Tuesday. A large circle of friends and relatives, extend sincere sympathy to the sorrowing family.

COVERT & BARTRAM.

This enterprising firm is composed of two popular young men, C. Fred Covert and Erum W. Bartram. Mr. Covert is twenty-two years of age. He was born in the township of Mundy, Genesee Co., Mich., on the 7th day of June, 1862, being the youngest of a family of eleven children. At the age of thirteen years, his parents removed to the village of Fenton where young Fred attended the Union school. Two years after the family removed to Ovid at which place he served a two years apprenticeship in his father's drug store. Subsequently he attended school at Valparaiso, Ind., for a term of three years, taking the scientific course, coming back to Ovid where he remained a year, and then returned to Valparaiso to take a business course. After graduating he returned to Ovid where he remained until 1883, when he married, came to Paw Paw, and went into business.

Mr. Bartram, or as he is familiarly known, Doc. Bartram, was born in November 1857, in a log house in the township of Victor, Clinton Co., Mich. He was born in the primitive forest which, at the time of his birth, was on fire through all that region. But Doc. was a tough boy and came out all right. His father died when E. W. was but four years old. Went to district school and attended the Union school at Ovid three years. Aside from the time he was in school he worked at farming until twenty-one years old, after which he took a full veterinary course at the Ontario Veterinary College, from which he graduated in 1879, after which he practiced his profession at Ovid, subsequently going to the University at Ann Arbor where he took a nine months medical course. He was married in 1879, and came to Paw Paw with his partner in 1883, where they bought Forsyth's stock of drugs and groceries. By their gentlemanly behavior they have won many friends, and by their strict attention to business, their honorable deal, and by judicious and liberal advertising they have built up a fine and constantly increasing trade. Both are good druggists, and Dr. Bartram stands high as a veterinary surgeon. Politically, they are both strong republicans. Mr. Covert was a candidate for township clerk, on the republican ticket, last spring, and was elected by a handsome majority. The general opinion of all who have formed their acquaintance is that, when they came to this village, Paw Paw gained two very respectable families, two good business men, and two desirable citizens.

North Hamilton.

Dance at the grange hall Friday evening. Mrs. Ferris has a cousin from the west visiting here.

Gness Charlie won't undertake to treat the school m'am with kerosene again.

Ed. Dyer and wife have compromised matters, and concluded that one house is large enough for both.

Riley and Mabel will commence house-keeping this week; there Riley, look out for the free serenade, the boys promised you so long ago.

W. W. Wilson who moved over in Keeler last fall, got into some trouble and was obliged to leave. He is moving back on his farm in this vicinity.

Garfield McGowan is bound to succeed as a school teacher. He spares no pains to prepare himself for his duties, studying all the time he can get. Success to him.

Lawton.

Mrs. W. W. Campbell is on the sick list. M. H. Smith is visiting his twin brother at Plymouth.

C. S. Adams is attending the Masonic Grand Lodge at Detroit.

Alonzo Hynes, an old resident of Porter, died at his home, on Monday, the 26th inst., of pneumonia.

On the visiting list we notice Mrs. Libbie Waterstreet, Napoleon, O.; Deacon Johnson, Chicago; Geo. Geiser, Jackson; and Chas. Ewers, late of the U. S. army.

N. O. Martin has business at Dowagiac every day now, the dam at Niles having gone out, thereby making it necessary for engines from the west to run to Dowagiac before taking water.

Salt eight cents a sack or three for a quarter is what puzzles a Lawton man who bought three sacks at the above rate. It is similar to B. J.'s sugar at seven cents a pound or thirteen pounds for a dollar.
